Primus, a once prolific mid-western mining town, is now a ghostly husk inhabited by the frail remnants of its former inhabitants. Greed and the promise of riches lured many into its silted streets, and as the grim hours of night slowly envelop the once bustling town, one must wonder what was sacrificed to bring such misery. The once proud citizens became a scruffy bunch of misfits and drunks scavenging their way through a living hell - they are all that remains. Uncover the secret of Primus, its rise and fall, to the final moments in the midst of madness and chaos. Brought to you by Aaron O'Neil of The Green Glowing Pipe. All the tools, items, decorative items and walls that you have unlocked will appear in your inventory. Weapons, armor, quipment, tools, you name it. Just make sure to equip it! Once you unlock the Mega Pet for your dog then it will appear in your inventory. It is currently a Tameable Pet - so you can pet it and feed it like all your other pets. However, it's at level 6 and might level up to reach 8. The pet will follow you when you go outside, or it can be summoned with its own button to the overworld. It also has a book to read at any time! As the pet can be chosen as the pet of a Townie, it will also have access to your wardrobe. Some pets have their own room with decorations from their walkthrough. It cannot be saved, only viewed. This includes a pet quest. If your dog has a dress up kit, then it's own room will open also, with its own decorations. Dress up is also applicable to the Mega Pet - the Mega Pet itself has its own deck, along with pets that have taken it as their pet. Please note, the Mega Pet's abilities are similar to that of your own pet. It can move around on the overworld, and has a pet quest. However, certain actions have a high chance of hurting it, therefore, it can be seen as a limited pet. Pick it up and it will follow you. Your pet has a teleport service too. The pet can also be a nurse (if you are female). Your pet has a big inventory and store! You can sell/trade items to other players on the server through the chat system. It can also be a guard c9d1549cdd
