What's new:

- “Solis el Barco”. This new player type allows you to summon the master of aerial dribbling, Neymar, to your side and control him with total ease. Just pick up the Brazilian superstar and then give him instructions to head, shoot, score or intercept all of the player’s actions. Impressive.
- “Modified Squad.”
Take control of your tactics and matchday rotation with a selection of modified squads this season. Feel free to fully customise your squad, from how you score your goals and set up your formation. All of this can be adjusted instantly using the Soccernomics overlay, or simply using the manual selection option on the squad screen.
- “Solitarias.” This new tradition in football is all the rage at the moment in West-Europe. The 2 centre-backs are much more dominant on the ball than ever before. Control a ball easily and watch your full-backs run with it to prevent the opposition defence from unbalancing themselves.
- “Empresa”. This new sponsorship mode introduces revised user licensing, which allows companies to sponsor teams. In addition to benefiting their teams, sponsors can also pick their preferred level of involvement in this way. Sponsors can also provide performance bonuses and new equipment through empowered fan voting on FIFA.com. The number of registered fans on FIFA.com has risen to over 10 million, with 68% of players aged under 30 part of this community in mid-2018.

- “Takedowns.” With so much in the way of aerial ability and balls being played into open areas, it’s a lot harder to tackle players. The new Tackle and Block mechanic changes this, giving you the ability to take on aerial players at the point of contact and even on corner kicks.
- “Top Passers.” Advanced statistics allows fans to follow managers or players to see how they perform when creating scoring chances.
- “Teams.” This new feature allows users to customize their own team with a host of new kits. Create your dream team from a variety of unique kits, all of which are produced by FIFA 14’s official manufacturer partners, ensuring the quality of your team improves each year. This season you can even personalise your stadium with a range of brand new kits.
