Dive into the writing process of this creative collaboration between H.B. and I. The Future of 7 Year Bitch: Future Music (OST): In lieu of another 7 Year Bitch album, here's a fresh look at what the future holds for I.A.S. We are H.B. Labs, a creative collective that develops creative music projects that focus on experimental sounds and psychedelic/ambient textures, but that are also melodious and catchy, if you so wish. Our entire artistic endeavors happen in the digital realm, where the creative process lives, and we ask of all our music to have a strong emotional connection, because as we are all truly human beings, emotions play a huge part in how we make art. For those that aren't familiar, we're a duo based in North Texas, who have been making music as the group 7 Year Bitch since 2007. H.B.'s solo body of work is a unique blend of synth-driven tracks with influences of Frank Zappa, Parliament/Funkadelic, and various 60s rock groups, while I.A.S.' solo body of work is a melodic and groovy brand of IDM influenced by Liquid Liquid, Junkie XL, and Aphex Twin. H.B. and I.A.S. have collaborated on writing and designing the music for different forms of media, including video games, cosplay/gaming costumes, original video content, and print pieces. Mutual Decline is the first H.B. Labs studio album, and the third 7 Year Bitch release. Mutual Decline: A few weeks ago, we released a self-titled 7 Year Bitch album, the first on a major label since 2002, when we released "Sex In a Hot Air Balloon." So we wanted to take a moment to reflect and share some of the stuff that made us excited about the new project that we've been working on for the past year. We feel as though it's a challenging thing to follow up a self-titled record with a new studio album, particularly because this is the first studio album that H.B. and I.A.S. have worked on as a collaborative project, and we're feeling the challenges that lie ahead. And while the last

Overall it's a pretty solid game, and well worth the money. " -Michael G. April 21, 2016 "I've played this game for a few months now and haven't been able to put it down once. This game is very similar to the Groupon Clone, Klout. The methods of gameplay, and user management are the same. I like how you can advertise your airline, create offers and sweepstakes for different holidays. The graphics are fantastic. The only thing I would like to add is that there is a slight delay when going through the menus. I have played this game at multiple internet connections and have seen and experienced the delay from multiple angles. " -Alfonso T. April 21, 2016 "This is a great game with a fun design. I love that it is free, you don't have to pay anything to play it and that it updates every day. I have been playing this game since I started doing my MBA and love the updates that keep the game fun. It is a great game for fans of business, management, and who is in need of something more casual to play for a little while to wait for their colleagues or to unwind while doing other things.
