I just stumbled across this article on your website about Avery Design & Print. What an informative article! I have spent alot of money on Avery products this year. I print Posters, Packing Labels, CD Rom Labels (I even had some with CD Roms in them!) and promotional items. Ive printed them a million ways and theyve worked perfectly. I know some people dont like to use Avery products, but Im here to tell you, Avery does a great job at what it does well. It may not be for everyone, but for those of us who require excellence in our products, Avery products are great to work with and Avery are committed to providing high quality. Thank you for the kind words on how we see our products. I agree with the comment about a well designed product being a product that has been well thought out and the ends in mind. We approach each and every product and customer service issue with the intention of resolving the problem and finding the best and most efficient solution. Our customer care team is one of the best in the industry because of the amount of training they receive to respond in a timely manner to every type of issues or question you have. If you reach out to us at 800-942-8379. Thank you, we here at Avery make the best products in the world and are pleased when we hear from our customers that they agree. The email I received this morning was quite a pleasant surprise. It was great to receive a note, like this one, from a customer who realizes how much we care and work at every step of the process from product development to the customer's end result. We call that customer satisfaction and it's what we do every day.
